

Review

4

A. Add words under the headings. Answers will vary.

Life's Regrets	Adjectives	Adverbs	Proverbs
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

Stressful Situations	Idioms	Prepositions	Conjunctions for Adverb Clauses
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____	_____

B. These are Andrea Field's regrets about her life. Rewrite them using I wish.

- I didn't work hard enough in school.
I wish I had worked harder in school.
- I argued with my mom constantly.
I wish I hadn't argued with my mom constantly.
- I didn't fulfill my ambition and become a standup comedian.
I wish I had fulfilled my ambition and become a standup comedian.
- I spent too much time chatting online.
I wish I hadn't spent so much time chatting online.
- I broke up with my boyfriend Rafe.
I wish I hadn't broken up with my boyfriend Rafe.
- I didn't travel to other countries.
I wish I had traveled to other countries.

C. Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use the third conditional.

- I missed the plane because my car broke down.
I wouldn't have missed the plane if my car hadn't broken down.
- Jane worked hard so she was able to buy a new car.
If Jane hadn't worked hard, she wouldn't have been able to buy a new car.
- We didn't buy you a present because we didn't have any money.
We would have bought you a present if we had had some money.
- Christopher took English lessons so he got the job.
If Christopher hadn't taken English lessons, he wouldn't have gotten the job.
- Danny hasn't taken care of himself. He's sick now.
If Danny had taken care of himself, he wouldn't be sick now.
- They didn't meet the actor because they arrived late.
They would have met the actor if they had arrived early.

D. Circle the best way to complete the sentences.

- Your skills on the soccer field were (bad) / badly this afternoon, Roger. I've never seen a team member play so bad / (badly).
- The (heavy) / heavily truck traveled slow / (slowly) up the hill.
- You're a (good) / well French speaker. Where did you learn to speak French so good / (so well)?
- We were both (anxious) / anxiously before seeing the principal. We looked anxious / (anxiously) at each other when the secretary called our names.
- I have some very (sad) / sadly news, Stanley. Sad / (Sadly) Barbara left you nothing in her will.
- The (cheerful) / cheerfully children worked hard in class. They never complained and approached each task cheerful / (cheerfully).
- I spoke angry / (angrily) to my little brother this morning.
I am really sorry now that I was so (angry) / angrily.
- The hurricane moved (fast) / fastly and violent / (violently) across the countryside.

E. Unscramble the sentences. Underline the relative clauses.

1. were / we / apricots / The / that / ripe / bought / too
The apricots that we bought were too ripe.
2. caviar / ate / we / expensive / very / was / that / The
The caviar that we ate was very expensive.
3. bed / slept / in / very / uncomfortable / The / that / I / was
The bed that I slept in was very uncomfortable.
4. pages / The / he / me / lent / that / had / book / missing
The book that he lent me had missing pages.
5. cookies / that / The / away / have / will / to / thrown / don't / sell / be / we
The cookies that we don't sell will have to be thrown away.
6. views / hotel / we / The / fantastic / had / that / our / window / from / were
The view that we had from our hotel window were fantastic.

F. Complete the sentences using the -ing form of the participle or the past participle of the verbs in parentheses.

1. The vase broken (break) during the party belonged to my aunt.
2. The slides shown (show) at the conference presentation were blurry.
3. A helicopter carrying (carry) six passengers landed on the building roof.
4. Who's the man wearing (wear) the red shirt?
5. The students celebrating (celebrate) their graduation partied all night.
6. The boy riding (ride) the blue bicycle is my little brother.
7. The car parked (park) on the drive belongs to my cousin.
8. The song chosen (choose) for the movie soundtrack is one of my favorites.

G. Circle the correct answer.

1. Since / Although you refuse to clean your bedroom, you can't go out tonight.
2. Because / In spite of her difficult behavior, designers want to work with the model.
3. Susie hasn't won any competitions but acts as like a star!
4. Even though / Despite we were best friends at school, we don't see each other now.
5. I spoke to Michael while during the game.
6. I saw the most beautiful girl in the world while at I was waiting for the bus.
7. The man looked although as though he had been in an accident.
8. Because of / Because the storm, the roads were flooded.

H. Vocabulary Builder

Complete the following proverbs with a word or words. Use reference books or the Internet if you need help.

1. Practice makes perfect.
2. Actions speak louder than words.
3. A friend in need is a friend indeed.
4. Opportunity seldom knocks twice.
5. You can't judge a book by its cover.
6. If a job's worth doing, it's worth doing well.

I. Write a sentence to explain the meaning of each proverb in Exercise H. Make guesses. Then use reference books or the web to check your answers. Answers will vary.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____